I am a cashier at store #32 and my name is Michael Scarn. I have worked here for 2 months.

Corporate talked to me today about violating policies at the company. Loss Prevention interviewed me and wanted to know why I was giving my discount out to people that didn't work here. The LP person that spoke to me did not make any threats or promises. Their name is Toby.

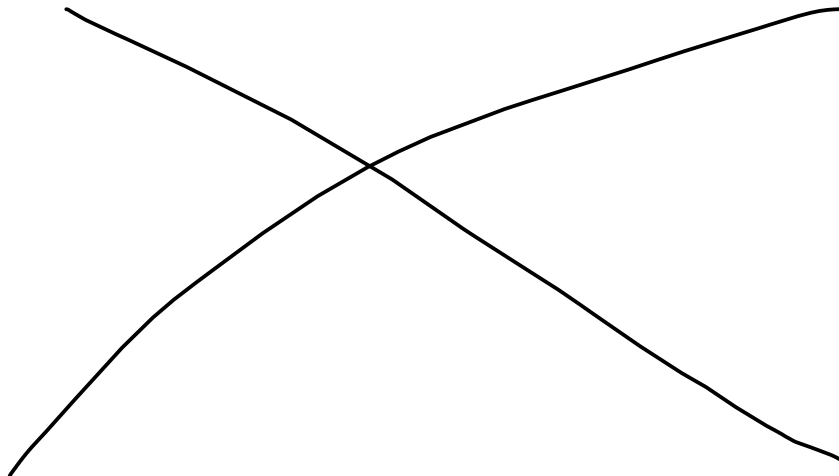

Starting in February I gave my employee discount to ~~a few~~ 3 different friends of mine because they asked me to. Toby explained that this was against policy. I did go through training when I first started. The total discounts were around $120.

There was also some merchandise that I ~~brought home~~ stole. These items were damaged and going to be thrown out. I will pay the company back for these, they totaled about $50.

I'm really sorry I did this. I love my job and hope that we can work this out.
